OLD BUSINESS

NAPA Car Show - No one at the meeting went.

Effingham – Mid America Funfest – Connie & Dick talked to a couple from Fox Valley Corvette Club that went. They said it was great.

Lake Geneva Classic Car Rally – Our 8 cars made the tour rather quickly. There were fewer cars participating-due to bad weather reports-but the contributions were still up there. Connie had 4 – 8's with a 2 high. It came in about 11th place for the 2 day rally. She also won the high hand among the 10 hands played by the club members on Saturday. The suggestion was made to eliminate Charlie O's next year (not much parking) and try the new stop this year- Yerkes Observatory.

Thank you Kim & Sue for going on Sunday. They were acknowledged and told THANK YOU for the club's door prize donations.

NEW BUSINESS

Color Run ?? – Anyone interested in organizing a color run – Please contact Dick ASAP. It was mentioned that the color run Bill & Kendall had last year was much appreciated. There were new sites and places.

Next month's agenda – 1) Set Due's, 2) open nominations for 2004 officers, 3) think about membership of the year award 4) discuss how the newsletter will be handled.

Drive the Mile - Tom and Sue received a letter announcing the 100th Anniversary of the Milwaukee Mile. Special Projects coordinator Jessica Schmidt is extending an invitation to participate in the first ever "Drive the Mile" event at State Fair Park grounds on Saturday, Oct 11th between 10:00 am and 1:00 pm (3 laps around the track) Some restrictions listed. Cost is 2 non-perishable food items & $15.00 or purchase $30.00 of professional racing merchandise. More questions call 414-453-5761.

Indy tape – Kim said she received notification that the tape offered during the Corvette 50th Anniversary Ride around Indy would now cost $40.00 + $15.00.

She wants to be sure the people who participated were still willing to share the fee. Those in attendance did agree.

Nov 22 & 23 Chevy Vettefest – in Chicago.

A motion to adjourn was made by Tom Walther and 2nd by Kendall. Opposed - the usual Sue Walther vote. The meeting was adjourned at 7:25 PM.
