OLD BUSINESS

June 19th Andy and Melissa's Wedding Celebration

Over 60 people attended the celebration. Congratulations again the latest club newlyweds. The club wishes the couple well as they fill that newlywed's penny jar. Tom said it took Sue ½ day to clean up the next day.

Bloomington Gold

Everyone really enjoyed staying on the grounds at Pheasant Run. Bloomington Gold tried a new approach to getting the Corvettes in and out of the grounds. General feedback wasn't very positive on the changes to traffic flow.

Libertyfest

11 Corvettes attended the parade and celebration in Twin lake. Special Thanks to Mike Means for setting this run up.

Hincz and Friends Benefit Car show

Great club turn-out with 10-12 cars. Tom reported they collected $700 plus lots of Food. Donations will e made to local Women's Abuse Shelter and local Food charities.

Bristol Progress Days

SEWCC was well represented with (10) Corvettes, (1) Fire Truck and (1) Lawn Tractor this year. The Bristol Parade Committee did a good job of eliminating water problems from previous years. Car Show discussion:

- Walt is working on getting copies of some critical Car Show forms including: people's choice voting ballots, participants voting ballots, and 50 membership forms.
- The red tickets for the 50/50 raffle are still missing. Everyone check you Car show materials and let Walt know if you find them.
- We have confirmed the parking signs are in Bruce Andrekus's hands.

Motion was made by Fred Taylor to disqualify Club Members Cars from winning SEWCC show awards.

Club members could still enter cars for standard car show fee. Each club car would display a club member sign instead of a voting number. After a brief discussion voting passed 13/5 with a couple people abstaining from the vote.

- Breakfast gathering the morning (6:00 am) of the car show at the Phoenix Restaurant. Hwy. 50 / I 94.
- Silent Auction reminder from Fred that we loss the Snap-on connection. Jeff Nevoraski will check to see if he can get anything.

Car Show Notes - Walt

- Flyers were distributed to past show attendees on June 19th
- Walt has extra Flyer available for distribution.
- Bradford Cheerleaders will be handling Food and Soda again this year.
- SEWCC still needs Silent Auctions Prizes. Everyone should ask for prizes from local businesses and vendors. Walt Powel has an informal letter to use in cooperation with the club flyer to solicit Car Show Raffle prizes. Contact Walt for a copy.
- Anyone interested in displaying a car in the dealership showroom contact Walt.

September Lake Geneva Poker Run

SEWCC will attend this year's Charity Poker Run on Saturday September 25th. The Lake Geneva Poker Run for Childhood Cancer is always a great time. For the newer members this Poker run stops at (6) locations around Lake Geneva were you pick your poker hands. We finish the day with a club dinner somewhere in the area.

Club members are encouraged to donate $20 to the club pool for poker hands. This event is structured such that a single payment of $200.00 will yield more hands than 10 donations $20.00 each. A 20.00 donation usually gets you 3 hands but participating in the club pool typically gets you 5-8 hands. If you would like to get into the club pool get your money to Dick or Connie Krueger in August. Dick will submit the total club pool to the Poker run and he will track the pool.

Departure place and time for Saturday Sept 25th Poker Run will be set at the Sept. membership meeting. This is always fun and the donation goes to a great Charity – Childhood Cancer.

The club decided not to donate baskets to this year's event since they seem to have too many door prizes in recent years.
